Splendid Reception Given by Them Last Night to Their Lady Friends.

MEETING OF THE ALDERMEN

Bridge Question Was Not Considered-Death of Mr. Puckett.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch. No. 1102 Hull Street. Exalted Ruler Eugene Lipscomb and bis 115 Elks, besides being the "best people on earth," were the proudest last night upon the occasion of ladies' night at the bandsome new home, Eleventh and Bainbridge Streets.

From early in the evening to after 11 b'clock, the house was filled with the ladies of Manchester, with their husbands and other escorts, and Manchester can produce more pretty, charming ladies than any other city in the country. The costumes of the ladies were beyond the power of any mere reporter to describe.

costumes of the ladies were beyond the power of any mere reporter to describe. But even at that, these were secondary to the sparkling eyes, rosy lips and sweet voices of the ladies themselves.

And then there were Ben Owen, Willis Pulliam, Bob Rives, Jube Early and the others in dress suits, ready to do any of the honors that the occasion required. The refreshment tables were presided over gracefully by the committee of ladies, and the decorations of carnations and smilax, with shaded lamps, set off the whole place and made of it a splendid pleture of what the order is and means. The lodge is not a year old, and yet mainly through the energy of the young exalted ruler it is one of the most progressive in the country.

The Reception Committee embraced a dozen well known young men-Messrs B. P. Vaden, chairman; John Mooro, M. L. Findley, W. W. Friend, J. Z. Walker, B. P. Owen, J. B. Moore, Jr., W. P. Patteson, J. C. McLeod, T. A. Harrison, G. G. Gorman, D. V. Cogbill, J. B. Lipscomb, who, with the board of governors, performed their functions in the nicest way. The board of governors consist of the following gentlemen: Messrs, George Gary, W. H. Washington, W. C. Pulliam, M. J. Johnson and R. H. Vaden.

A programme of excellence was arranged and produced under the direction of, the Music Committee—Messrs, R. R. Bacon, W. J. Morrissett and W. B. Cridlin. The programme embraced the following numbers: Duet, Messrs, Cridlin and Bacon: Solo, W. J. Morrissett; Quartette, Bainbridge Street Church choir Misses Lovell and Gregory, Messrs. Cridlin and Burton: Recitation, Miss Addie Cridlin: Solo, Miss Coly Lovell; Solo, Mr. Burton:

Here the guests were served by a charming set of Indies—Tuttirutt, by Mrs. George Gary; lee-cream, by Mrs. Andrew Daffron, Mrs. Ton Neisler, Mrs. Willie Beattle; chocolate and coffee, by Mrs. W. B. Bradley, Miss Edna Davidson; cakes and cookies, by Misses Edna Tonny, Pearl Hinton, Janle Davidson, Mrs. Merchant and Mrs. Hill. Among the distinguished guests of the crening were nearly all the ministers of the various denominations in the city. Exalted Ruler Lipscomb wore a handsome scarf pin presented him by the members of the lodge. He is very proud of the valuable present.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

The Board of Aldermen had very little business before them last night.

The budget, as it came from the lower branch, was concurred in, and the bond of City Auditor Nunnally was approved. Woodward and Sons asked that their petition to construct a spur track on Everett Street be taken up and acted cu, but the matter was objected to. At present the petition is in the bands of the Street Committee. Mr. Patram said that committee would act upon it as soon as possible.

Mr. Bradley, for the Finance Committee, stated that his committee had no report to make concerning the proposed free bridge at Misyo's Island, and, upon motion of Mr. Patram, the matter went back to the Finance Committee for a report. The committee made no report because there was no quorum present at the last meeting of the body.

Mr. Bradley called the committee to meet, next Monday night to consider the bridge question.

Those present at the Board meeting were: Messrs. Perdue, Abbott, Barrett, Hocker, Hubard and Patram. City Attoriev Page was also present.

WINNERS IN THE CUT-UP PICTURE PUZZLE CONTEST

First Prize-MRS. M. E. TAYLOR. Second Prize-MRS. W. E. JOYNER. Third Prize-MISS OLLIE V. BOSWELL.

In accordance with the terms of the Cut-Up Picture Puzzle Contest, which was published on the want ad. page of The Times-Dispatch last Sunday, the contest was closed yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock and the prizes duly awarded. The solution of the puzzle is the name of the popular druggist at Twenty-first and Marshall Streets, Mr. Robert J. Williams, who conducts in his place of business one of The Times-Dispatch want ad. branches, where want ads. are received for publication. There were a number of correct answers received, but very many of them flew wide of the mark. Some said Justice Crutchfield, some Senator Beveridge, others thought it was the Governor, and some even insisted that it was Mayor Taylor. After picking out all of the correct answers, those containing the name of Robert J. Williams, with each want ad, containing one of the letters of his name pasted neatly in regular order on the same sheet with the picture, a very small boy was blindfolded and told to choose three sheets from the basket. The first one drawn out was that of Mrs. M. E. Taylor, 711 East Leigh Street, and the Academy tickets for Thursday night were promptly mailed to her. The next drawn out was that of Mrs. Mrs. W. E. Joyner, 510 North Twenty-sixth Street, and tickets for the Bijou for to-night were sent her. The third of the lucky winners was Miss Ollie V. Boswell, 1318 Floyd Avenue, and the Bijou tickets for Saturday matinee have been mailed to her.
